

Digital television copyright protection is a bad idea because it removes rights that consumers currently have pertaining to recording television. Personally, I have recorded many shows and I would feel that my right have been severely abridged were I to lose my ability to do so. Please do not allow the copyright protection to pass.